

CONCEPT

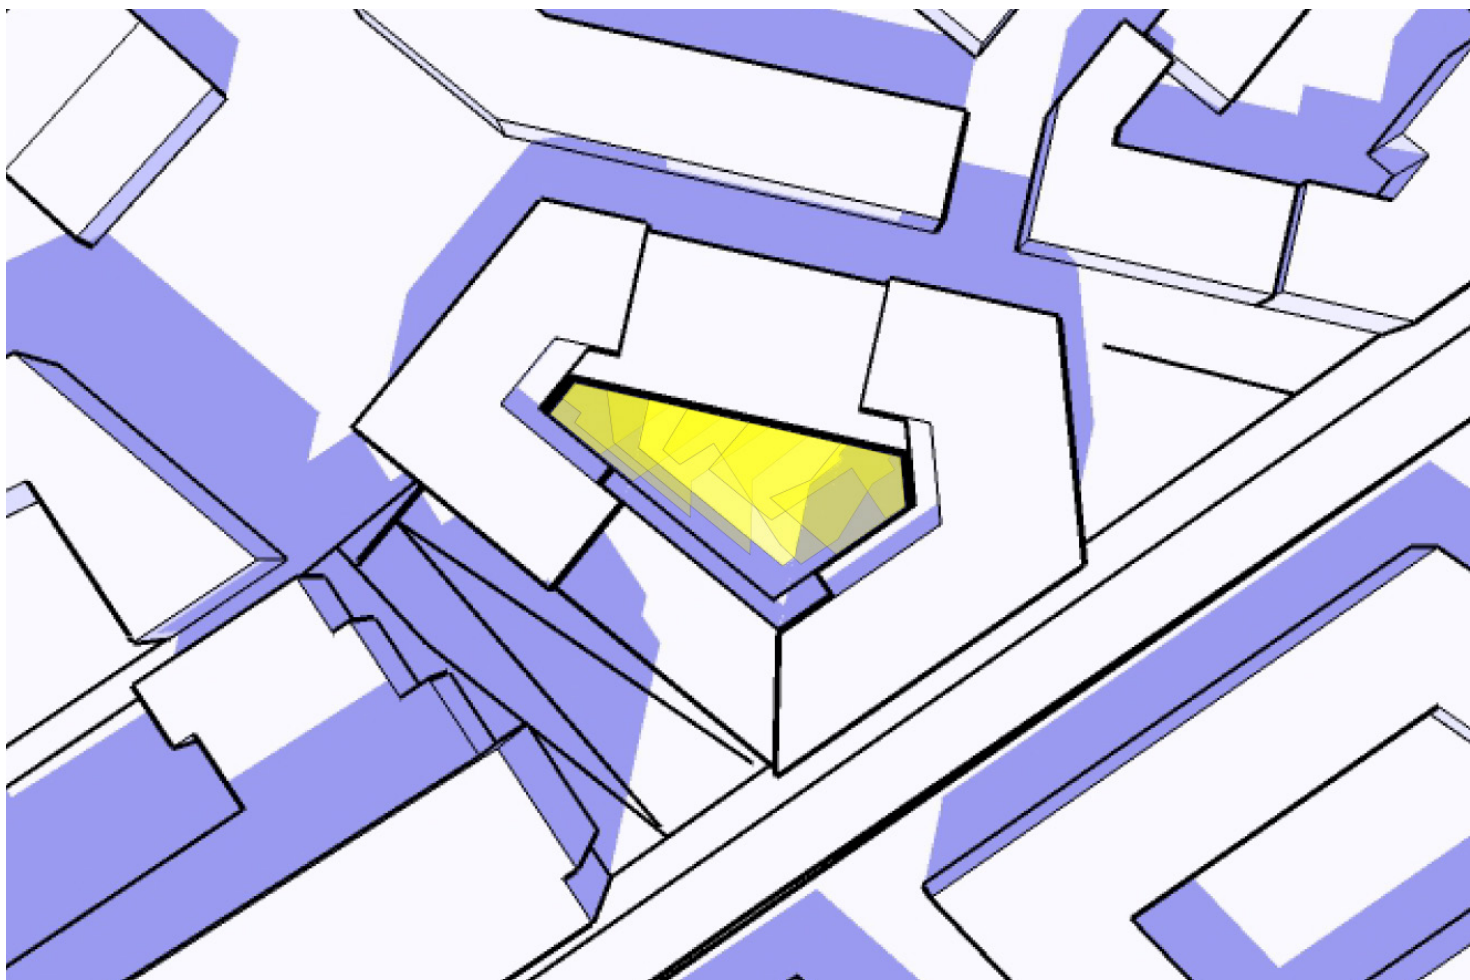

Sun study

15th february 13:00-15:00

15th march 12:00-15:00

21st april 10:00-17:00

courtyard

entrance gate

facade toward square

towards triangle garden

from the city center

roof terrace

Ebbingehof is a pentagonal residential block on the site of the former CIBoGo gasworks in Groningen. The 40 apartments and communal spaces are arranged around a semi-public courtyard. We cut away sections to allow in maximum sunlight. This intervention created a lively sculptural form, that shifts in appearance depending on where you stand. The sunny courtyard and two roof gardens are the residents' communal gardens.